

Adjective or Adverb | Grammar exercise

Some adjectives and adverbs have the same form. Some adverbs have two forms. Complete the following sentences with an appropriate adverb.

1. Can you be there at 5 o'clock
.....?

sharp
sharply

2. Don't speak to her so

sharp
sharply

3. It serves you

right
rightly

4. The ball hit me on the nose.

right
rightly

Adjective or Adverb | Grammar exercise

5. The baby is sleeping

sound soundly

6. I believed that you loved me.

wrong
wrongly

7. I hate arriving

late lately

8. You are working too

hard hardly

9. Which part of the movie did you like
.....?

most

Adjective or Adverb | Grammar exercise

mostly

10. My friends are vegetarians.

most
mostly

11. That arrangement suits me

finely fine

12. She was injured in the accident.

deadly fatally

Answers

1. Can you be there at 5 o'clock sharp?
2. Don't speak to her so sharply.
3. It serves you right.

Adjective or Adverb | Grammar exercise

4. The ball hit me right on the nose.
5. The baby is sleeping soundly.
6. I wrongly believed that you loved me.
7. I hate arriving late.
8. You are working too hard.
9. Which part of the movie did you like most?
10. My friends are mostly vegetarians.
11. That arrangement suits me fine.
12. She was fatally injured in the accident.